- Tone: Local fan pride

There's a crew of fans out here dead serious about buying the Pirates.

Not just that — they're making ChatGPT the GM.

I pledged. You in?

- Tone: Analytical and reform-focused

It's official: Reboot the Pirates is live.

The goal? CrowdFund the team. Build an AI/human hybrid front office. Make better decisions. And make them public.

I pledged. You can too.

- Tone: Civic pride meets action

Fan-led. Legally structured. Transparently run.

The Reboot the Pirates campaign is one of the most ambitious projects in sports right now.

Check it out. Join in. <https://reboot-the-pirates.com>

- Tone: Serious but bold / Like a sports reform movement

This isn't just a hot take — it's a fully legal Reg A+ campaign to buy the Pirates and rebuild them with smarter, AI-driven decisions.

Pittsburgh deserves a front office that explains itself.

#RebootThePirates #PNCPark

- Tone: Straightforward and inspiring

This is a campaign for people who love the Pirates and hate the ownership.

Crowdfund the Pirates. Use AI to guide decisions. Let fans see what's happening in the front office.

- Tone: Straightforward sports fan

Just pledged to support a campaign that's trying to bring fan ownership to the Pirates.

AI-led decision-making. Public accountability. Legal compliance.

This is real, and it's worth a look.

- Tone: Surprised but impressed

Didn't think I'd wake up and pledge to help fans buy the Pirates + install ChatGPT as GM.
But here we are. This is Pittsburgh.

#FanOwned #RebootThePirates

- Tone: Dry, clever humor

Fans are buying the Pirates and letting ChatGPT run the team.
Honestly? After the last two decades, I welcome our AI overlords.

- Tone: Podcaster or sports content creator

The future of small market baseball might just be in Pittsburgh.
A fan-powered AI front office. Crowdfunded ownership. Transparent decisions.

I'm watching this campaign closely.
